

Russian Dance

Watch as the Russians do their dance. It seems they are taking quite a chance.

They hover just above the floor and kick their legs in sets of four.

Now they are turning round and round and landing again without a sound.

Then click their heels up in the sky. It seems that they're about to fly!

Hear the balalaika! Hear the balalaika! (8-count rest)

Hear the balalaika! Hear the balalaika! (8-count rest)

Come dance! Come dance! come swirl and twirl and whirl around!

Watch as the Russians do their dance. It seems they are taking quite a chance.

They hover just above the floor and kick their legs in sets of four.

We are making quite a roar as we all yell for more and more!

One and two and three and four, you think that they are getting sore?

They are heading for the door as we applaud for an encore!
