

UNIT 3 STUDY GUIDE

MULTIPLE CHOICE (1 POINT)

1. Why were the Puritans better prepared than the Pilgrims?
2. What did people who disagreed with the Puritans often do?
3. What were the causes of King Philip's War?
4. What colonies were the New England colonies?
5. What made the economies of New York and New Jersey strong?
6. What colonies were the Middle colonies?
7. Why was the colony of Maryland founded?
8. How did Mary Musgrove help the Creek and the Georgia colonists?
9. What colonies were the Southern colonies?
10. How did Ben Franklin help Philadelphia grow?
11. Who had their passage paid for in exchange for 5-7 years of work?
12. Why did some colonists settle in the backcountry?
13. Why did enslaved Africans live on large plantations in the Southern colonies?
14. What was the goal of slave revolts?
15. How did the colonists view the English trade laws?
16. What does "freedom of the press" mean?
17. Who was Phillis Wheatley?
18. In colonial governments who was allowed to vote?
- 19.-20. Be able to read and understand historical maps.

FILL-IN-THE BLANKS (1 POINT)

covenant common tolerate fundamental slavery

plantation indigo debtors

slave trade apprentice Great Awakening backcountry triangular trade Middle Passage industry

SHORT ANSWER (1-2 POINTS)

1. Why did every New England village have a school?
2. Why did people come to America? (Give 2 reasons.)
3. Describe two ways enslaved Africans resisted slavery.
4. Why did England make it illegal for the colonists to make certain goods, like hats, nails, and horseshoes?
5. Be able to read a historical map about the triangular trade.
6. The governor represented the interests of _____. The assembly represented the interests of _____.

ESSAY

	New England Colonies	Southern Colonies
What was daily life like?
What were some of these colonies' ideas?	1.)  2.)	1.)  2.)
What made this economy strong?

1. (Use the notes that are attached to fill in this chart.)
2. Describe the Middle colonies. Your answer should include what the Middle Colonies were known as, why they were known as this, and what daily life was like.