

Imagine the Possibilities...

Stellar Staff 2016-2017

Every other week a staff member will be nominated for Stellar Staff based on the topic below. Dates / forms will be sent out for each.

If all students were engaged

Nominate a colleague who excels in maintaining student engagement.

If all students had hope

Nominate a colleague who excels in providing students hope.

If all students had a plan

Nominate a colleague who excels in helping students set and meet goals.

If you were willing to try new things

Nominate a colleague who is not afraid to fail and tries new things.

If classwork was connected to the future

Nominate a colleague who guides students in finding the relevance to their future.

If every student had an advocate

Nominate a colleague who is willing to go the extra mile for a child in need.

If classrooms were fun and informative

Nominate a colleague who excels in having fun with quality learning.

If all students felt included

Nominate a colleague who excels in finding students a place to belong.

If colleagues supported each other

Nominate a colleague who is deliberate in building relationships with staff.

If you made each day a great one

Nominate a colleague who chooses a positive attitude regularly.

If parent communication was constant

Nominate a colleague who maintains open dialogue with parents/guardians.

If we supported students outside of the classroom

Nominate a colleague who regularly spends time attending student events.

If we dared students to dream bigger

Nominate a colleague who regularly inspires students to pursue their dreams.

If we collaborated to make every classroom better

Nominate a colleague who excels in sharing work and learning from others.

If we treated our students the way we wanted our family to be treated

Nominate a colleague who treats students with respect and kindness.

If we smiled more

Nominate a colleague who shares their happiness with others.

If students knew your passion

Nominate a colleague who lives their passion.

If your door was open to every student

Nominate a colleague who takes time outside of their schedule to learn students in their arena.