The 'Member Since:' section contains the following text:

¹ Upromise GoalSaver Accounts are offered through Sallie Mae Bank, Member FDIC. Subject to $10 minimum transfer amount. Please note: cash back savings held in your Upromise Rewards Account are not FDIC insured, carry no bank guarantee and may lose value. Once rewards are swept into your Upromise GoalSaver Account, FDIC insurance is covered through Sallie Mae Bank up to the applicable limits. See FDIC website for insurance limits.

² Only the primary borrower can link Upromise and loan accounts. Cosigners, family and friends may direct their Upromise earnings to the Upromise account of the primary borrower to help them pay down their loans. Not all loans may be eligible for linking. To view details and how Upromise earnings are applied to loans please visit www.upromise.com/loanlink. Upromise account balances of $10 or more will be transferred to help pay down linked loans on a monthly basis. If you have multiple eligible loans, allocation of your Upromise earnings will depend on the loan type and are at the sole discretion of Upromise and Sallie Mae. Access to Upromise is not limited to Sallie Mae and Navient loan customers.

At the bottom of the page, there is a 'Have Questions?' section with the contact information: Call us at: 1-800-UPROMISE.

InformU

Here you will find articles for college planning, budgeting and many ways to save.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the Upromise website. The Upromise logo is on the left, followed by links for Earn, Maximize, Redeem, and Resources. A search bar labeled 'Search retailers' is next, followed by 'Shop' and 'InformU' (highlighted with a red arrow). A user profile 'Hello, Christine' is on the far right. Below the navigation bar is a blue header with 'What's New', 'Topics', and 'Blog'. The main content area features a large image of two women talking, with icons of a graduation cap and dollar signs. The text 'InformU' is prominently displayed, followed by the tagline 'Where people come to learn and share everything related to saving for college.' and a call to action: 'Check out our articles, fun facts, videos, and more.' Below this is a search bar 'Search InformU...' and a dropdown menu 'All Topics'. A 'SPOTLIGHT' section follows, with three article cards: '3 Easy Steps to Plan Your Child's College Career', 'How to Find (and Beat!) Your Budgeting Blind Spots', and 'Make Your Staycation the Best Vacation Ever'.
