

Alexis Turley, an Early Learning Center kindergarten entrepreneur, creates and makes designer rocks. Her company "Alexis' Rocks" has made a profit thanks to her marketing plan to family and friends.

Ryley Farmer, a 5th grader at Ridge View, creates using Scratch. He designs his own version of 90's video games. He makes mini-movies using code and he creates space ship simulator games.

HHS Senior Kaylee Rodriguez is a composer and artist. She writes and records original songs. On a computer monitor, she can see the elements of the song she's recorded as well as playback.

Matthew Cherven, a 5th grader at Ridge View, is a Lego Robotics programmer and engineer. He can make his robot move in circles, move in a straight line, and pick up objects using color and movement sensors.