

CADET OF THE QUARTER

Battalion XO Cadet Major Brennan LeVan! Brennan is a senior and has been in JROTC all four years!

Cadet of the Quarter is a special award given to JROTC cadets who show a great amount of leadership ability, excellent academic records, and pride in the hard work they put into the program.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- 31 October Raider Competition
- 1 November Marksmanship Team Season
- 13 November Coats for Kids

Cadet Life

VOL. 6 ISSUE 1 OCTOBER 2015

Welcome Back Cadets!

The 2015-2016 school year has officially kicked off, and is quickly flying by. JROTC Cadets are already getting a head start on their community service hours, and are gearing up for the upcoming inspection in March! Color Guard is flying the flag, Drill team is ready to march, Marksmanship team is hitting the bulls eye, and the Raiders are ready to dominate their competition on October 31! If you don't know what a Raider is, what the color guard does, or what the purpose of JROTC is... then drop and give me 10 cause we have all the answers!

Left & Below: Color Guard leads the homecoming parade & Pep Rally

Color Guard, Raiders, and More!

Color Guard meets every Thursday after school, and they learn how to properly present our Nations Colors. You can usually spot our JROTC color guard team at every sporting event presenting the flag just before the National Anthem. Marksmanship meets Friday afternoons. They compete in postal as well as shoulder to shoulder matches.

Above: Color Guard practices for HC game.
Left: Marksmanship practice

Color Guard, Raiders, and More... Continued

Raiders is a unique group that meets every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday after school. The group is led by Raider team Cadet Captains Josh Dykstra and Aaron Buhmann. This team focuses on physical fitness, and many different team work activities. This team is not just doing all of this work for the fun of it, Hobart is hosting one of the largest Raider Competitions in a four area on October 31. Hobart is part of the 7th Brigade which includes the states Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Indiana.

Our Mission-Citizenship... Our Method-Volunteering!

Amanda Cicillian loading food for the Hobart Food Pantry

The JROTC course does it's absolute best to build Character, Desire, Commitment, and Teamwork. Our goal is to motivate young people to be better citizens. Our instructors do their very best to give back to the school, and to the community as a whole. We are 184 strong, and every year that number continues to grow. So far this year, we have volunteered at football games, the Hobart Food Pantry, in our community and throughout the School City of Reserve Parking is Hard Work!

Aaron Buhmann & Amanda Cicillian loading food.

Duck Racing is hard, but somebody's got to do it!

Over 1,900 Community Service Hours During The 1st Quarter!