

Cadet Life

Character—Desire—Commitment—Teamwork

Hobart Goes to Michigan City Pentathlon!

On November 17, 2012 Hobart competed in the Michigan City JROTC Pentathlon. We competed in the Color Guard, PT Challenge, Academic Competition, Unarmed Squad IDR, and a Platoon Inspection. Our academics team scored 1st place

by a landslide! Congratulations to academic team members Julia Martin, Carrie Buhmann, Nolan O'Brien, and Jacob Hall. People that participated in color guard are: Ehson Umrani, James Madson, Michael Kilch, Cody Blankman, and Ciara Furlong. The cadets that were on

(continued on page 2)

JROTC CPR Certified!

Every cadet earned their American Heart Association CPR certification during the last week of November

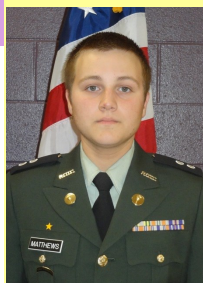

A huge thank you to LTC Buhmann and Emergency Medical Technician teacher Mr. Lawley. Cadets learned adult, child, and infant CPR, along with the Heimlich Maneuver and how to use an AED.

When the training was complete the cadets were tested over what they had learned.

(continued on page 2)

This Semesters Ca- dets Of The Quarters

Alan M. Matthews is the Cadet of the First Quarter. Alan puts all of his effort into helping not only the JROTC program but his community as well. He works hard in JROTC class and was instrumental in a smooth beginning to the JROTC school year.

Alan has a way of putting his friends and his work before himself, and has become known as a very dependable cadet. He is a very influential person for the simple fact that he always participates and tries to improve upon everything he does.

When Cadet 2nd Lieutenant Anderson interviewed him about this honor he was amazed. "I never expected to be chosen for this," Cadet Matthews said, "I have always acted the same. I'm

(continued on page 2)

Upcoming Events

Lou Wallace
Marksmanship
Meet @ Hobart
1/12/12

Purdue Drill Comp
2/9/13

President's Weekend
2/15/13-2/18/13

Indy Drill Comp
3/2/13

Hobart Springfest
3/22/13

Spring Break
3/29/13-4/7/13

Hobart Raider
Comp
3/30/12

Wayne Raider
Comp.
4/12/13-4/13/12

Service Learning

“If you believe it, you can achieve it!”

(continued from page 1) the

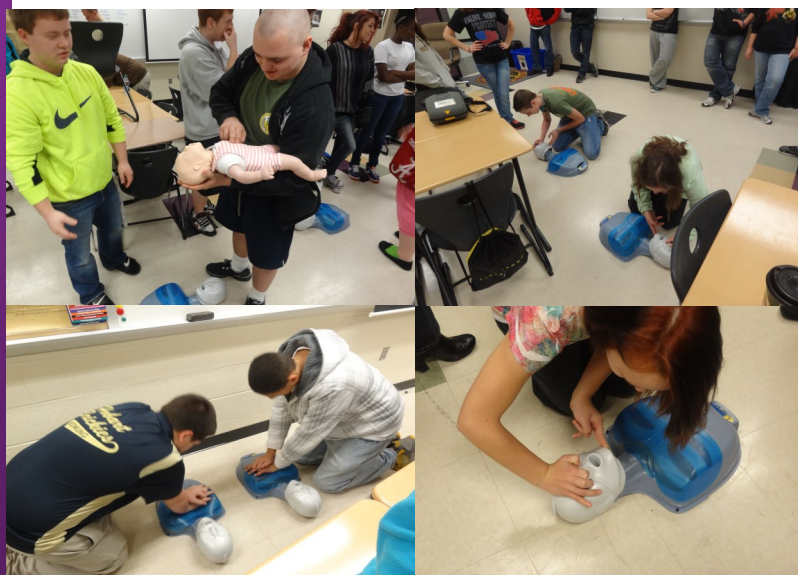

Braden O’Kelley, Todd Burns, Andres Rivera, Alex Cordova, Kaitlyn Radats, and Martha Evanuskus. The Unarmed Squad IDR consisted of Michael Klich, Ehson Umrani, Ciara Furlong, Alexis Perez, Shaun West, Rebecca Robertson, Ashton Goodpaster, Leandra DeFrier, James Madson, Jared James, and Taylor Pilipiak. All of the cadet who participated in the event did a fantastic job and gave it their all. Congratulations to all the cadets who participated in any portion of this event.

(continued from page 1)

Every cadet tested passed and earned the CPR certification.

This is the second time cadets have been CPR Certified. A few years ago, JROTC established a cycle of certifying either CPR or Community Emergency Response Team Training every other year. Next year, we will complete the CERT Certification, and in two years we will again certify in CPR. Hopefully the cadets will never have to use what they have learned, but it’s a good thing to know.

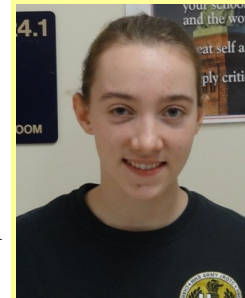

PT team consists of:

(Continued from page 1)

honored that 1SG Marshall and LTC Buhmann chose me.”

Outside of school Alan makes fishing lures and sells them for charity. He works at the Apple Orchard and has a veterinary internship at Hobart Animal Clinic. Alan is a senior at Hobart.

Our Cadet of the Second Quarter is Cadet Sergeant Martha Evanuskas. She is a sophomore. “Martha earned Cadet of the Quarter because she is a great student with an awesome attitude. She is always positive, gives her best and never complains”, stated

LTC Buhmann. She is well known among her peers for being very dependable and always having a great attitude..

Martha strives to do her best no matter what she is doing. In her spare time she enjoys playing with her dog and hanging out with her friends.

Congratulations to the both of you!